Large French Oak Dining Table circa 1920-40

Impressive in size at just under 9' long, this library or refectory table will make a dramatic dining table and gathering place in today's modern home.

The large oak table reveals years of use as seen by typical scratches, nicks, separation of wood along the top, etc. which do not impact the function and simply add to the rich character of this stunning French dining table.

Note the substantial size of the three legs and traditional trestle base. Restored, strong, stable and very heavy it is ready to be used and enjoyed.

Any scratches, cracks, dings, or age related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this lovely piece.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
