Large Painted Shop Cabinet Wall Unit from France, circa 1880

This amazing French country pine shop cabinet is from the late 1800's and stands 9.5' tall.

Newer custom painted layered finish in burgundy with a white interior, distressed fitting the age of this impressive cabinet. The unique configuration of three large, spacious upper and lower cabinet sections is divided by a raised central panel flanked by two square drawers, allowing for a center buffet or shelf for additional use and storage.

Built in two sections for easier transportation and installation.

Restored, keys function as pulls only.

Bottom of drawers have been replaced.

Please refer to professional photos to appreciate the exceptional painted finish, details and condition.

Any scratches, cracks, dings, or age related separation are commensurate with age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this beautiful bookcase.
