Original Oil on Canvas Mountain Landscape Painting Signed, Thomas DeDecker, circa 1951

Delightful small landscape oil on canvas painting with flowers in foreground, dried river bed, pine trees and mountain in background.

"Dried River Bed" by Thomas DeDecker signed on back, with painter's traditional signature on lower left front corner.

Thomas DeDecker was born in Appleton, Wisconsin 1951 and studied at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah. His paintings of western landscapes and the American Indian lifestyle are reminiscent of works by the masters of the Hudson River School. DeDecker has won numerous state and national awards, including Artist of the Year 1986 and Outstanding Artist given by the CM Russell Museum.

Measurements taken at widest part of frame.
