Gray Painted Corner Cabinet With Pane Glass, Sweden circa 1840-60

This pine corner cabinet has lovely pane glass upper doors allowing beautiful display of any collection held within.

This large cabinet is built as one piece (it does not break down into sections) and reaches 7' tall with a simple crown and fluted carved details underneath.

The professionally applied custom pale gray layered finish has white undertones while the interior has a contrasting light blue painted finish. Enlarge close up photos to appreciate the overall finish.

Restored, strong and stable; the doors open using brass pull knobs.

Any scratches, cracks, dings, or age related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this large corner cabinet.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
