Birch Secretary Bureau from Germany, circa 1840-60

Rich birch and stately lines define this handsome Biedermeier drop front secretary. Refer to close up photos to appreciate the stunning grain pattern of the flame birch veneer.

Multiple interior drawers and hidden storage areas are accented by the internal and external turned columns of this elegant secretary.

Professionally restored, this handsome desk will bring timeless elegance to your home.

Key and lock function in top central cabinet, additional key used as pull only in lower 3 large drawers.

Any old cracks, nicks, scratches or signs of wear are age related and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this exceptional secretary.

Open depth: 38"

Floor to Desk Height: 29.5"
