Rustic French Oak Coffee Table, circa 1950

The appeal of this heavy French oak coffee table comes from the rich patina of the wood. Every crack, ding, old knot and stain all add to the depth and richness found in the thick top. Note how the darker color of the legs inset into the top also add to its rustic character.

Rests on heavy legs with a stretcher base. Restored, strong and stable. Any scratches, cracks, dings, or age related separation are reflective of age and do not detract from the beauty nor function of this coffee table at just over 5' long.

Please refer to professional photos for clear understanding of color, condition and details; photo lighting, individual monitor display and home lighting may all impact how item is viewed.
